You will then be contacted by BBO for information on how to proceed with the deposit and final payments by credit card on a secure and safe system. Once the deposit is done, you will be fully registered.

Deposit and Payments

Deposit is generally $500 per person unless noted otherwise in journey notes for a specific odyssey. Payment can be done with credit cards on our secure and safe system, after you have filled out the registration and signed the Terms of Service form. You must provide us with an authorization for each payment transaction for the odyssey. Your authorization is an agreement for us to charge your card and an agreement to these terms and conditions including the cancellation terms, waiving any right to a chargeback and agree to any refund policies defined in these terms and conditions. Sometimes, it is possible to dispute a credit card charge (chargebacks) but before initiating this, we kindly request that you call us and we will work with you to resolve your concerns. You agree to not make any improper chargebacks. BBO reserves the right to collect all costs, fees and expenses associated with such chargeback, reversal, or recollection, including, without limitation, attorney fees.

The balance of your odyssey fee is due 90 days prior to the odyssey start date. If registration is received within the 90 days of an odyssey’s start date, then a full payment is needed following the registration and signing of the Terms and Condition form.

Pricing

Pricing is in US dollars per person and based on double occupancy. We reserve the right to change prices slightly up until 90 days before departure. This could be done based on a variety of factors, including unexpected changes in transportation costs, fuel costs, supplier costs, exchange rate changes. If you are traveling as a single person, you will be assigned a roommate of the same gender, unless you choose a single room, if available, which would then be assigned a single room supplement surcharge.

Accommodations

Accommodations are based on double occupancy per room. If you are traveling alone, we will match you with a roommate of the same gender. If you choose to room alone, a single supplement will be charged. It may not be possible to get a single accommodation on all tours.

Itinerary Changes

We reserve the right to modify the itineraries when needed and substitute accommodations of equal value if needed.

Cancellation by Participant

If you must cancel your reservation, money will be returned less the cancellation fees. We request written notification of cancellation by email sent to journey@bluebeeodysseys.com with a fee based on the date of receipt of your email. 90 + days prior to departure, the cancellation is 50% of your deposit. 90 to 60 days prior to departure the cancellation fee is 50% of odyssey cost. 59 days or less, prior to departure the cancellation fee is 100% of odyssey cost. No exceptions will be made to this cancellation policy, including for reasons of personal, family or medical emergencies or any other circumstances beyond your control. You will not be reimbursed for any personal expenses such as airfare, lodging, or travel expenses. We STRONGLY encourage purchasing travel insurance.

Travel Insurance

All participants must have medical insurance that would cover you while outside your home country. Please review your policy and obtain a supplemental policy if needed. You agree to accept full and complete responsibility for any and all participant medical expenses and associated costs in the event that you become ill while traveling with BBO.

BBO strongly recommends travel insurance for all of our odysseys in order to protect your investment in the odyssey and your health. It should insure you at a minimum for foreign medical care and medical evacuation, and also for trip cancellation, flight delay, personal illness or accident, loss of luggage and other personal belongings. It should also include coverage for pre-existing health conditions, should you have any. It needs to be purchased shortly after signing up for your odyssey, usually 14 days, although each carrier is different in their requirements. You can go online to obtain information on travel insurance or contact insuremytrip.com which allows you to compare plans. You can also check your credit cards to see if they cover travel insurance. If you choose not to cover yourself with any travel insurance, you then assume the risk and full responsibility for all tour fees and costs as well as foreign medical care and medical evacuation.

BBO Tour Cancellation, Force Majeure

Although we do our best to avoid this, it is possible on rare occasions for Blue Bee Odysseys to cancel an odyssey due to insufficient registrations. You would be notified 91 days in advance. In this case, your entire payment would be refunded to you within 14 days after the odyssey cancellation. BBO is not responsible for any additional expenses incurred by you in preparing for a canceled odyssey, such as nonrefundable airline tickets, travel insurance, etc.

An odyssey could be canceled due to Force Majeure, meaning any circumstances beyond the reasonable control of BBO, including terrorist activities, insurrection, strike, flood, volcanic eruption, forceful wind, fires, war, health threats, pandemics, and other unforeseen circumstances. If BBO or any of its suppliers are affected by Force Majeure, they may in their sole discretion vary or cancel any itinerary or arrangement in relation to the tour. If an odyssey was canceled due to Force Majeure or other event beyond our control, the BBO cancellation policy does not apply and no refunds will be granted, (unless as determined by BBO sole discretion). It is advised that you obtain travel insurance.
